Benvenuti

Welcome Bienvenu Willkommen Welkom

www.lagotrasimeno.net

Dear Visitor,

we are delighted to welcome you to Trasimeno, to this fascinating area of Umbria, the Green Heart of Italy, located between Florence and Rome, and increasingly sensitive to the theme of accessibility and inclusiveness thanks to the vision of the business entrepreneurs and the public and private stakeholders who have brought to life projects aimed at improving a style of hospitality based on the "tourism for all" concept.

The cultural sites, the modern services, the wholesome food and fine wine, the natural beauty of the surroundings and the warm welcome of those who live here are just some of the reasons for visiting, and then returning, to Umbria to enjoy a holiday you will rave about with family and friends for a long time to come.

Ours is a slow lifestyle that combines outdoor activities (water sports, horse riding, biking, trekking, golf) with less-strenuous fun (visits and tastings, museum tours, excursions), to experience a territory, its people, its culture, its artistic heritage and the products of its land. Your perfect holiday begins here!

Have a wonderful stay!

Trasimeno for Everyone Accessible Tourism in the Heart of Umbria

The "Trasimeno per Tutti" project was presented at the annual TTG tradeshow in Rimini and is an initiative which aims to transform the Trasimeno area into a truly inclusive destination.

The objective is to make this gorgeous part of Umbria accessible to people of all abilities, in keeping with the principles of the Convention on the Rights of the Physically Challenged. .

The Trasimeno Cycle Route con has been improved with new directional and informational signs, together with specific digital content regarding accessibility via QR codes and NFC indicated on the signs.

Such important cultural landmarks as the Tulle Museum, the Mariottini Collection, the Sbarra Museum and the Glassworks museum also offer new inclusive content in the form of Braille text and tactile reproductions for the vision-impaired, CAA simplified content, audio guides for children, and LIS and IS videos for the hard of hearing. Trasimeno per Tutti has taken accessibility to new level and is there to make the entire Trasimeno area a destination absolutely everyone can enjoy.

Castiglione del Lago

"On the border between Umbria and Tuscany stands an enchanting town named Castiglione. Steeped in centuries of history, it protects Trasimeno whilst reflecting its profile in the waters of the lake."

The town's most important building is undoubtedly Palazzo della Corgna, which dates to the 16th century (1). Built by the Baglioni family of Perugia, it was initially intended as a hunting lodge but was eventually modified to serve the della Corgna family court. These days it hosts important cultural activities and is home to a fascinating museum that depicts mythological themes and the grandeur and courage of the della Corgna men in frescoes painted by the renowned artist Niccolò Circignani, known as il Pomarancio. A long and ancient covered walkway connects the Palazzo to the late 13th century fortress (2), a military fortification built on the remains of an Etruscan acropolis. The keep, which dominates the entire perimeter of Lake Trasimeno and its wonderful landscapes, was added soon after. The ruins of a church dedicated to Saints Philip and James, probably of Byzantine origin, are preserved inside the fortress.

WALKS THROUGH HISTORY

Within the walls of the castle is a fascinating amphitheatre which in summer is used for a wide variety of performances and events.

Other landmark buildings are also well worth noting: the church of San Domenico (3) with its museum, and the church of Santa Maria Maddalena (4) home to the famous painting by Eusebio da San Giorgio.

In the outskirts of Castiglione del Lago one can go visit the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie in Casamaggiore and the Santuario della Madonna della Carraia in Panicarola. The former airport of Castiglione del Lago is noteworthy both for the beauty of the nature it preserves and for the fascinating history it is justly proud of.

This utterly charming medieval town is a favourite for its spectacular landscapes, for its history and amazing art, but also for its delightfully slow pace of life and rich pristine nature.

It is the perfect place to rediscover "the true meaning of Italian lifestyle," and for this reason the residence of choice of many actors, athletes, economists, intellectuals and politicians. The panoramas inspired the greatest painters of the Renaissance and still today attract artists from the world over. It is the birthplace of Raphael's master, Pietro Vannucci, known as "Il Perugino," one of Italy's greatest Renaissance artists in whose paintings the Pieve landscape is a characteristic element. Città della Pieve is home to some of his greatest works: the Adoration of the Magi in the Oratory of Santa Maria dei Bianchi (1), the Baptism of Christ and Our Lady in Glory and Saints in the Cathedral (2) and the Deposition from the Cross in the Diocesan Civic Museum of Santa Maria dei Servi (4), where there is also an exhibition of the Etruscan relics (sarcophagi and urns) that were discovered in the Tomb of San Donnino. Noteworthy contemporary art also makes itself felt in town, with such places as the Lauri Garden (Loc. San Litardo), the Kossut Space (5) and the Photographic Culture Laboratory (Via F. Melosio).

Magione

Ancient villages nestled in unforgettable sunsets

The east coast of Lake Trasimeno is dotted with towns and villages steeped in history, graced with beauty: San Savino, with its medieval castle and tower; San Feliciano, an authentic fishing village; Montecolognola, a 14th century hamlet with gorgeous views of the lakeshore; Monte del Lago, an architectural gem perched on high over the lake; Agello with its splendid 11th century fortress; Sant'Arcangelo and Torricella, charming tourist resorts with all the services. Magione, the area's capital, boasts the Castle of the Knights of Malta (1), which was built in the 12th century to serve as a fortified hospital. Beautifully conserved, it can be visited and often hosts guided tastings and cultural events. Magione is also home to the ancient Torre dei Lambardi (2), a tower fortress that was erected at the end of the 12th century by the Knights Hospitaller high on a hill with magnificent views. Magione also boasts a strong vocation for sports, as evidenced by the Autodromo dell'Umbria race track, the sailing and windsurfing along the lake's shoreline, the hiking trails over the hills, the kite flying on the beaches and quad paths in the woods.

MUSEO DELLA PESCA (3)

Expanded and renovated, this quaint museum offers the public some very interesting exhibits: the permanent one about the history of the lake and man's rapport with it over the centuries; an exhibition hall for temporary shows; an immersive hall entitled Matteo of the Lake, and a newly refurbished larger aquarium. Furthermore, it is home to the TrasimenoFumetto cartoon-strip festival that is enlivened with a series of events for adults, families and kids.

OLIVAGANDO

Paciano

Kieran Mulvaney, writer and environmentalist, talks about Paciano in Washington Post: "My first thought when I got here is that this is exactly how a Hollywood set designer would depict a medieval village."

Where to start? From the heart of the old town centre, from the Palazzo Baldeschi information office and TrasiMemo (1), near the Don Aldo Rossi Museum (2). Everywhere you look there is a treasure waiting to be admired: churches, decorations of madonnas, balconies, little mom-and-pop shops selling local food and wine, places which, together with the Town Hall in Piazza della Repubblica, render a lovely harmonious image of a medieval village. The cultural routes include the Church of the Madonna della Stella (3) which boasts some lovely mannerist frescoes. Visiting this area is an opportunity to taste delicious local products and enjoy the landscape that graces the visitor's eyes at every turn. Take, for example, the Via Romea Germanica (a road dating to the 1200s), which from the town of Stade in Germany leads to Rome and, as it passes through Paciano, connects Castiglione del Lago to Città della Pieve.

TRASIMEMO AND MUSEO DON ALDO ROSSI

The TrasiMemo Banca della Memoria del Trasimeno, is a very special bank which conserves ancient values, traditions and knowhow, and where contemporary technology is used in exhibition halls and shared in workshops. Nearby you'll find the Don Aldo Rossi Museum, home to the ancient town banner made in the Bonfigli workshop in 1450, while the gallery itself boasts 18th century paintings by Castelletti that look just like tapestries and feature twelve depictions of the Madonna.

Panicale

Panicale, on Italy's Loveliest Towns circuit, is perched on a fabulous terrace overlooking Lake Trasimeno and still feels like the medieval castle it once was, with 2 gateways and a characteristic concentric layout. Getting "lost" in the crisscrossing little streets is always a fascinating way to spend time. Three piazzas on three different levels graced with noteworthy landmarks welcome visitors: the 15th century fountain, the magnificent Collegiata (1), and the Palazzo del Podestà (2). The frescoes in the church of San Sebastiano include the celebrated Martyrdom by Il Perugino (1505) and a detached fresco attributed to Raphael and should not be missed, while the Tulle Museum and the della Sbarra are also definitely worth a stop. The Pinacoteca Mariottini, at Palazzo Comunale is home to portraits of illustrious men, and the C. Caporali theatre – an architectural gem and the cultural core of town – hosts plays, concerts, dance performances and operas.

LIS (Italian Sign language)

NFC (Near Field Communication)

ART ROUTES AND ACCESSIBILITY

These include: The Sanctuary of the Madonna di Mongiovino (3), a national monument and a pilgrimage site, houses some of the most precious examples of Italian Mannerist painting. The church of San Sebastiano (4) has an access ramp and is equipped with info panels in Italian, English, Braille, LIS and NFC. It houses frescoes by Il Perugino and Raphael. The historic Teatro Caporali (5) boasts a beautiful stage curtain painted by Piervittori (1869). The Collegiata di San Michele – the Anita Belleschi Grifoni Tulle Museum is in the Church of Sant'Agostino (6) and is equipped with info panels in Italian, English, Braille, LIS and NFC. Audio descriptions of tactile experiences with the Tulle works made by the master embroiderers of Panicale are available, as are virtual visits and interviews with the embroiderers of Panicale. The Paraments and Sacred Objects museum is in the Church of the Madonna della Sbarra (7) and has touch panels for virtual visits at the entrance. The Mariottini art collection is at the Pinacoteca Comunale (8) and is equipped with info panels in Italian, English, Braille, LIS and NFC.

CONTEMPORARY PANICALE

The Beverly Pepper Amphitheatre (9) is a wonderful example of land art and was created by the recently deceased contemporary American artist Beverly Pepper – Mauro Staccioli's Upside-Down Arch - Via Belvedere, (10) sits like an accent mark on the countryside and Virginio Ferrari's Crystals in Formation are seven stone cubes set in front of the entrance to the Madonna della Sbarra museum (7).

Passignano sul Trasimeno

ComunePassignanosulTrasimeno

An ancient fishing village nestled between the cool blue waters of the lake and the lush green of the surrounding hills, Passignano is an authentic jewel. The town got its name from being on the road that leads from Tuscany into Umbria over the Passus Jani, or Passo di Giano, the god of thresholds and gateways of ancient Roman mythology. The area surrounding town is great for nature walks and hiking, for horseback riding and cycling. Pieve di San Cristoforo (1), next to the cemetery just outside of town, is Passignano's oldest church and can be dated to the 10th century. The church of the Madonna dell'Oliveto (2) is located in the western part of town and was built towards the end of the 16th century. The Rocca (3), or fortress, probably dates back to Longobardian times (5th to 6th century) and offers breathtaking views over the lake. It hosts exhibitions, concerts, plays and other such cultural events. Perched on a hilltop to the north is the tiny village of Castel Rigone, one of those rare and ideal places that lends itself to cultural and environmental tourism. The Santuario di Maria SS dei Miracoli (4) is an Umbrian Renaissance masterpiece well worth a visit.

THE ROCCA AND THE CHURCHES MUSEUM ROUTE

The very best views of the lake are to be enjoyed once you are within the embrace of the medieval walls of the Rocca Medievale, where you can sit and relax with something refreshing from the panoramic coffee shop. The Rocca also houses a variety of exhibition rooms, including the Documentation Centre for Traditional Italian Lake and River Craft, which is also officially part of the Linguistic Atlas of Italian Lakes. The route then takes you to the parish Church of San Cristoforo, dating to the 8th and 9th centuries and graced with noteworthy frescoes, to then finish at the Church of the Madonna dell'Oliveto, just a bit further along.

Piegaro

The Piegaro area includes numerous really interesting places, places steeped in history, rich with nature: the Cibottola Castle, for example, which still boasts a large section of its ancient walls and a heptagonal tower that is some 20 metres high! Then there are the Giache and Greppolischieto castles, both of which have been perfectly restored, or the lovely little village of Castiglion Fosco with its round 16th century tower, or the privately-owned 11th century Seven Friars Abbey with its Romanesque church, monastery and courtyard.

Pietrafitta Lake is a paradise for carp fishing, and for fitness buffs. There is Mt. Arale, the highest peak in the area at 853m, with its new recreation zone. As you head up towards Piegaro you'll come across the little 16th century church of the Madonna della Crocetta before you see the town's old walls and their medieval towers. Worth note, once you're in town, is the church of San Silvestro Papa, as well as the lovely palazzo Misciattelli – Pallavicini, built in the 18th century and now an historical residence.

MUSEUMS

Museo del Vetro (2) The museum is inside what was once the focal point of glass-making from the middle ages onwards, and the building itself is an extraordinary example of industrial archaeology. Tuoro sits at the northern rim of Lake Trasimeno, on the border with Tuscany. The area's art and ancient history has been organised into four routes. The History-Archaeology Route is focused on the Battle of Trasimene and crosses the fields where the epic battle between the Romans and the Carthaginians took place. Made up of 12 rest stops equipped with bi-lingual illustrated informational panels, they explain how the battle was fought. The Museum of Hannibal at Trasimeno (1), a fine example of applied multimedia technology, was recently added to the experience. The nature route leads visitors through verdant woods to the fascinating leaning tower of Vernazzano (2), while Campo del Sole (3) is a lakeside field that is home to 27 sculpted stone columns. The fourth route takes the visitor to Isola Maggiore, the largest of the lake's three islands. This route encompasses Franciscan and Renaissance history, including such important landmarks as the beautifully frescoed church of S. Michele Arcangelo, the island's Documentation Centre and the Lace Museum (4), home to precious works of lace art made using the so-called Irish Point technique, a heartfelt local tradition. Items include very fine laceworks, wedding dresses and baptism smocks.

MUSEO DI ANNIBALE AL TRASIMENO

The museum offers the most interesting new information we have about the Battle of Trasimene from an historical-archaeological, geological and geographical point of view. It makes use of cutting edge instrumentation and multimedia applications that reveal fascinating details of the archaeological map of the north-eastern part of Trasimeno, as well as the most relevant theories relating to the battle and the many other battles of the Second Punic War.

MOON IN JUNE

EVENTS

INFIORATA DEL CORPUS DOMINI - 22 June

Nature and culture intertwine as the Corpus Domini Infiorata comes to life. The streets of the old town centre become an open-air workshop on the night of June 21st, when artists begin to draw a variety of religious designs on the street bed which, at dawn, are "painted in" using coloured flower petals, breathing life into the designs.

MOON IN JUNE - Isola Maggiore - June

The natural stages for the Moon in June music festival are the breathtaking sunsets of Lake Trasimeno. Started in 2015, the lake's largest island has hosted delightful evenings of festival music ever since.

<https://livingtuoro.it>

FERRAGOSTO TOREGGIANO - July/August

This festival is one of Trasimeno's most interesting summer events. It features theatre, animation, processions, re-enactments, jousts and tastings to let us relive the ways and costumes of both Roman and Carthaginian civilisation. One of the events not to be missed is Tuoro 217 BC, which takes place on 9 August and takes us back to the times of the great Punic Wars.

<https://livingtuoro.it>

FESTA DELL'OLIO - October/November

The Festa dell'olio, explores the many facets of extra virgin olive oil, one of the area's most prized products. There are plenty of things to do: conferences, tastings, markets, a photography competition, sports events and so much more. Fine food, tradition, culture and the environment intertwine to celebrate the "Green Gold of Tuoro."

FESTA DELL'OLIO

The Park and its Islands

Lake Trasimeno Park

The largest park within the Umbrian Regional Park System and because of the valuable plants, animals and fish it hosts, Lake Trasimeno Park is one of Europe's most important and unusual wetlands. The absolute peace and quiet and the pristine landscape make it a truly unique and special place to explore.

Aeroporto Eleuteri - Castiglione del Lago

The airport on the shore of Lake Trasimeno was named after a renowned Umbrian aviator, Leopoldo Eleuteri, was once a military airport. Now it is a pristine nature reserve of about 100 hectares and serves as a starting point for hiking, cycling and nature walks. It remains an ENAC certified ultra-light craft air strip and is host to a number of yearly events such as Endurance and the Festival of Kites and Ultra-light Aircraft, as well as being host to the Campus Scolastico Temporaneo Eleuteri of the Polo Scolastico Rosselli Rasetti and the regional LIPU centre, the Equestrian Endurance event and the "Festival del Volo – from kites to ultralight aircraft"

Oasi Naturalistica La Valle - San Savino - Magione

The heart of nature in Trasimeno: shallow water and extensive stands of reeds make this an important rest and nesting stop for thousands of birds as they fly along their yearly migratory route. The Oasis has 2 nature paths with 4 observation points, a new 200 metre wooden walkway over the reeds of an ancient but partly accessible emissary, thirty binoculars visitors can use, a bird-ringing station open every Saturday morning, and a hut with a kitchen and 12 beds. Please visit the website for opening hours and the other services (independent visits, guided tours, nature walks) offered.

Isola Maggiore

This island still today looks like the village built by fishermen in the 15th century. Saint Francis came here to spend Lent, and a chapel recalls his arrival and the place on the shore where he prayed. Irish point lace is one of the island's proudest artisanal traditions. The main landmarks to visit are the Lace Museum, the Church of S. Michele Arcangelo and the Casa del Capitano del Popolo.

Isola Polvese

The largest of Lake Trasimeno's islands, it is a centre of science and education and has a vast and ecologically important wetland area with reeds that offer a habitat to a variety of bird and amphibian species. Among its historical landmarks are the Church of San Secondo (12th century), the Monastery of the Olivetani monks (15th century), the Church of San Giuliano (11th century) with its Roman Opus Reticolatum, the Defensive Castle (15th century) and the Porcinai pond, named after the architect Pietro Porcinai, which is also called the Garden of Ancient Water Plants. On site accommodations include Villa Biagiotti, now known as the Villa Polvese Resort and Oil Farm, and the Poggio hostel and farm. Visitors can avail themselves of a digital info point, accessible bathroom, an orientation station showing the various trails and offering more information about the island, as well as bilingual audio guides suitable for disabled users.

Land of Famed Personages

ANNIBALE

247 - 183 BCE

A Carthaginian general, he is considered by some as the "greatest general of antiquity" who, on 24 June, 217 BCE, ambushed the Tuoro encampment of legions of soldiers under the command of the Roman Consul Caio Flaminio Nepote in what was to be one of the most ferocious and bloody battles of the Second Punic War: the Battle of Trasimeno.

SAN FRANCESCO

1182 - 1226

Lake Trasimeno can be thought of as the middle point of routes that connect the "places of St. Francis": Assisi, the Verna Sanctuary (Arezzo) and the Celle Convent (Cortona). In 1211, he came to Isola Maggiore to spend Lent, and a church and a convent were built there in commemoration.

PIETRO VANNUCCI "IL PERUGINO"
1448 - 1523

One of the greatest Italian artists of his time, Pietro Vannucci, known as Il Perugino, was also the maestro of Raphael, among others. Born in Città della Pieve, his works hang in the world's most important museums. In Città della Pieve, however, you can see his Adoration of the Magi, and in Panicale is his Martyrdom of St. Sebastian.

ASCANIO della CORGNA
1516 - 1571

A military commander, his name is tied to both Città della Pieve and Castiglione del Lago where the family's majestic palazzos stand decorated with frescoes that tell of his great exploits. Ascanio was one of his era's most illustrious men and fought in the famous battle of Lepanto, as well as almost every other war of his time.

The della Corgna family at Trasimeno

The history of the della Corgna family began in 1550, when, after Giovanni Maria Ciocchi del Monte was elected Pope (Julius III), his sister Giacomina was granted the Chiugi Perugino area to the west of Lake Trasimeno. The first Signore was her son, Ascanio della Corgna, while her brother Fulvio, a cardinal, was appointed Bishop of Perugia. Ascanio embarked upon a military career fighting under many a banner, and died in 1571 upon his return from the Battle of Lepanto. In 1563 the territory was elevated to the status of Marquisate, with Ascanio and Fulvio the first marquises of Castiglione del Lago: he was succeeded by Diomede, son of their sister Laura, adopted by Ascanio, who had no male heirs. Diomede was the one who finished the great buildings his uncles had started - the three Palazzo Corgnas in Città della Pieve, Corciano and Castiglione del Lago, the beautiful villa Colle del Cardinale near Corciano - and then began building his own residential palazzo in Perugia. When, in 1583, Fulvio died, his summer residences - the castle at Pieve del Vescovo and the Seven Friars Abbey in Pietrafitta, which the cardinal had restored and completely frescoed - were abandoned. Diomede's son, Ascanio II, followed him as Marquis, and added a theatre to the palazzo in Castiglione del Lago. His son, Fulvio Alessandro, became the 4th Marquis upon Ascanio's death and he married Eleonora de Mendoza from the court of the Viceroy of Naples, and later Teresa Dudley, daughter of the Duke of Northumbria. With the death of Fulvio Alessandro in 1647, the duchy was taken over by the Apostolic Chamber.

Walking itineraries

La via del Trasimeno

A 160 km-long camino in 7 stages around Lake Trasimeno.

A loop camino everyone can do through the area's lovely towns and villages with the great company of the lake and its hills and islands as walking companions. You decide if you want to do all 7 stages in a week, or just do a few of them when you have the time, on a weekend, or as a day trip. Each stretch of the way is about 22 km long, and you can choose where to start and in which direction to walk! .

La Via Romea Germanica

The German via Romea starts in Stade and ends in Rome and in 2020 was declared a "cultural itinerary" by the Council of Europe. The camino follows the route described in the 13th century by the Abbot Albert and goes from Germany, through Austria, to Italy. Here, the pilgrimage route goes over the hills that gently slope downwards to the lake and connects to the walking trails and cycling paths in and around Castiglione del Lago, Paciano and Città della Pieve, and then continues on towards Orvieto and Rome

I sentieri del Perugino nelle Terre del Marchese

This project aims to promote the roads travelled by both the Divin Pittore (as il Perugino was known) and the Marquises della Corgna over secondary roads in between the towns and villages surrounding the lake in order to fully appreciate the great historical, cultural and environmental heritage they offer. It's a series of itineraries that become a camino!

Cycle paths of Trasimeno and Perugia - Trasimeno

Trasimeno Cycle Path.

On-road path

The Cycle Path is an easy one, mostly flat and without any technical difficulties. It can be enjoyed with a mountain, gravel or E bike, on motorised chairs, manual wheelchairs, 4-wheel electrical scooters and hand bikes. The route is entirely sign-posted with tourist plaques and 15 informational boards. The boards have QR codes and an NFC that takes you to the official website, lets you download the GPX traces and get information about the route via both text and audio/visual aids. In the towns of Borghetto, Passignano sul Trasimeno, Torricella, San Feliciano and Sant'Arcangelo, a short stretch of the via Romea, the route continues over roads with different characteristics.

- ↔ Total length: circa 58 km
- 🕒 Total time: 4 to 5 hours
- 🔄 The route length is indicated in a clockwise direction starting from Castiglione del Lago
- 🚲 Bikes can be transported on both trains and ferries.

Perugia-Trasimeno cycle route

Going through the parks of Perugia, the route heads to Lake Trasimeno on paved roads, with some stretches on dirt roads with little traffic, with the exception of several heavily trafficked roads and some difficult parts, especially leaving the Perugia urban area. Then it joins the Trasimeno Cycle path between San Savino and San Feliciano.

- ↔ Total length: circa 29 km
- ⬆️ Ascent and descent: +180m; - 200m.
- Level of difficulty: Easy

Food and Wine

CITTÀ DELLA PIEVE SAFFRON

Locally known as croco, over the centuries it has always been a valued bright red treasure that turns orange: we're talking about saffron, a fascinating and ancient spice used above all in cooking. The aim of the Croco di Pietro Perugino Consortium is to raise awareness, protect and promote the production and marketing, and safeguarding its local typicity and unique characteristics.

LAKE TRASIMENO FISH

Fishing has been the livelihood of local families since time immemorial. Today, the professional fishermen of the area work together in cooperatives and, since 2024, their activity has earned them the SLOW FOOD presidia ranking. Queen carp, eel, tench, royal perch, pike and milkfish are all fished here. Queen carp is especially delicious when prepared "in prorchetta." "Tegamaccio," a delicious local version of bouillabaisse, is also worth tasting and is served in a characteristic earthenware bowl.

TRASIMENO FAGIOLINA

Cultivated by the Greeks and Etruscans, the Fagiolina thrived throughout the Trasimeno area thanks to the ideal terrain and climate. It is characterised by its small size and its variety of colours. It is a favourite of fine food enthusiasts and great chefs. It earned its Slow Food Presidia rank in 2000, and the consortium that safeguards it, the Fagiolina del Trasimeno Consortium, was formed in 2002.

WINES

Thanks to the mild climate and ideal soil, the cultivation of wine grapes can be traced back to the Etruscans. Native varieties include Grechetto (a white grape vine), which gives the wine a straw-yellow colour with green tones, and the Gamay del Trasimeno (a black grape vine of the Grenache family) that bless it with a deep granite red hue.

OLIVE OIL

One of Trasimeno's oldest and most characteristic products is olive oil. The range of varieties includes: Dolce Agogia, Frantoio, Leccino and Moraiolo. The olive groves that dot the lakeshore hillsides provide a fine quality extra virgin oil that bears DOP Umbria and Colli del Trasimeno certification.

All the more reason to enjoy Trasimeno!

The Carini family estate is located on the slopes of Mount Tezio and the plains of Lake Trasimeno, which, like the city of Perugia, is just 15 minutes away. The 140 hectares of fields, vineyards and groves are all organic. Our main activity is winemaking, but we also make olive oil from centuries old olive trees and grow the native legume, the fagiolina del Trasimeno, a Trasimeno SlowFood product. Not only, but we have a free-range herd of prized Cinta Senese pigs which provide us with exceptional cured meats that can be sampled along with our wines. Please contact us by calling (+39) 347 630 3781 to book a tour and/or tasting. The Wine Shop is open from 10am to 1pm and from 3pm to 7pm.

The Fattoria Luca Palombaro farm is at the entrance gate of the beautiful Monte del Lago promontory. Nestled in the old walls of the village, perched high over the lake and surrounded by its olive groves, for almost a century we have poured all our love and passion into making the olive oil that has made us famous. We welcome visitors with a tour of the traditional stone olive mill, the ancient and unique oil storage jar room and, while enjoying fabulous views of the lake, a tasting of the two types of olive oil: Roncone, intensely fruity, and Belfiore, moderately fruity.

We also offer excursions into the groves to show our guests the various types of trees the olives grow on.

UMBRIA UNESCO HERITAGE DAYS

Italian and foreign tourism tour operators and specialised press (some 45 guests in all) will be involved in the 16th edition of the World Tourism Event. These hand-picked tourism professionals will be accompanied to Umbria on 26 September, 2025, and tour the villages, nature trails and museums around Lake Trasimeno, as well as the UNESCO heritage sites, historical landmarks, food, tradition and culture of Assisi. For their return trip two days later, on the 28th, they will take the special tourist train that directly connects Assisi to Rome, a recent novelty activated thanks to an accord between the City of Assisi and the Historical Trains department of the Italian Railroad.

This event is a wonderful chance to raise awareness of the UNESCO Heritage sites in Umbria and the activities that revolve around them, as well as highlighting the quality accommodations tourists can enjoy while here.

Lake Trasimeno is part of Living Lakes, the international network of lakes that was founded in 1998 to protect lakes and wetlands all over the world. It is a major project begun by the Global Nature Fund with headquarters at Lake Costanza in Germany and aims to protect nature and the environment, as well as promote the wellbeing of animals.

A seal of quality has been assigned to local businesses in recognition of their efforts to comply with standards that guarantee systems of quality management and services that respect the environment and to let tourists and residents know of their commitment to the broader project called “Manifesto Ambientale”.

I Borghi più belli d'Italia

This initiative came about to highlight the great historical, cultural and environmental patrimony of Italy's smaller towns and villages. This prestigious award was given to Corciano, Castiglione del Lago, Paciano, Panicale and Passignano sul Trasimeno.

An efficient monitoring system for safeguarding environmental quality

ARPA is the Regional Agency for Environmental Protection, or ARPA Umbria. It strives to detect and analyse various parameters relating to air, water and soil to verify compliance with national and European standards and requisites. Every year since 2020, Polvese Island and the various municipalities surrounding the lake organise an art exhibition of works inspired by environmental issues. Shows and conferences are held as part of Isola Prossima events to promote an environmentally aware culture.
